Subject: Request for a Brief Interview on Upcoming UFO Hearing

Dear Dr. Kosloski,

I hope this message finds you well. My name is Manuel Scheuernstuhl, and I am a Fulbright scholar and journalist at Columbia University. I am currently writing an article focused on Senator Kirsten Gillibrand's upcoming push for a Senate hearing on UFOs, likely taking place after the November elections, to review the work and progress of the All-domain Anomaly Resolution Office (AARO).

As the Director of AARO, I believe your insights would be invaluable for this piece. I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to conduct a brief 10-minute interview with you regarding your office's work, its progress on UAP assessments, and how the upcoming hearings could impact national security discussions.

I am available tomorrow between 12:00 PM - 2:00 PM, after 5:00 PM, or on Friday before 12:30 PM for a quick Zoom meeting or phone call. Please let me know if any of these times work for you.

Thank you for considering this request, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,
Manuel Scheuernstuhl

If it helps, I just heard Kosloski was the "NSA liaison" to UAPTF while Jay Stratton was director of UAPTF.

Let me know if that's correct and if Kosloski had any other involvement with UAPTF.

Thanks again.

During a presentation yesterday, Jay Stratton, former director of the Pentagon's UAP Task Force (UAPTF), said current AARO director Jon Kosloski was once part of, or involved with, the UAPTF.

Q1. Was Jon Kosloski part of the UAPTF?

Thank you.

I agree... discuss with him the nuance between member and assigned.

There were only a few permanently assigned...
